Privacy

17. i The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act) allows personal information to be collected, held, used and disclosed for the purposes for which it was collected as notified to users, and otherwise in accordance with the Privacy Act.
- ii This clause outlines how the Agent collects, holds, uses and discloses the Principal's personal information (as that term is defined in the Privacy Act). This clause only applies to the extent the Agent collects, holds, uses and discloses personal information.
- iii The Agent may collect, hold, use and disclose personal information the Principal provides the Agent in connection with this agreement or collected from other sources for the following purposes: (a) identifying and verifying the Principal and the Premises; (b) advertising and promoting the Premises for lease; (c) processing and assessing any application received in relation to the lease of the Premises; (d) negotiating and preparing any lease for the Premises; (e) liaising and exchanging information with the Principal and the Agent's or Principal's legal and other advisors in relation to or in connection with any lease of the Premises; (f) managing this agreement and any lease of Premises including the collection of rent on behalf of the Principal and the preparation of required statements of account; (g) complying with any applicable law; (h) confirming whether the Principal is registered for GST purposes; (i) operating controlled money accounts; (j) complying with any dispute resolution process; (k) serving and signing (or arranging signing of) this agreement; and (l) contacting and liaising with third parties (including, without limitation, goods and services providers and insurers) and to provide those parties with the Principal's personal information.
- iv If the personal information outlined in this agreement or requested by the Agent is not provided by the Principal, the Agent may not be able to act on behalf of the Principal effectively or at all. The Agent may also not be able to discharge its obligations in this agreement. It is impracticable for the Agent to deal with a Principal who has not identified him, her or itself or used a pseudonym.
- v Personal information collected about the Principal may be disclosed by the Agent for any of the purposes for which it was collected (as outlined above) to other parties including the Agent's or Principal's legal and other advisors, advertising and media organisations, property data service providers, prospective and actual tenants, clients of the Agent both existing and potential, tradespeople, strata owners corporations, valuers, government and statutory bodies, financial institutions, REINSW (which provides technical and other assistance to the Agent to effect the matters set out above) and other third parties (including, without limitation, goods and services providers and insurers) or government agencies, courts, regulatory bodies, and law enforcement agencies, or as required, authorised or permitted by any applicable law.
- vi The Agent may also use the Principal's personal information for marketing and research purposes to inform the Principal of products and services provided by the Agent, which the Agent considers may be of value or interest to the Principal, unless the Principal tells the Agent (by ticking the box below) or has previously told the Agent not to.
- vii If the Principal does not wish to receive any information about such products and services then please tick this box: or otherwise notify the Agent using the Agent's contact details set out earlier in this agreement.

LEASING AGENCY AGREEMENT (RESIDENTIAL)

The Property and Stock Agents Act 2002 (NSW) and Regulation require all agents' instructions to be in the form of a written agreement.

LEASING AGENCY AGREEMENT (RESIDENTIAL)

- viii The Principal has the right to request access to any personal information held by the Agent which relates to the Principal, unless the Agent is permitted by law (including the Privacy Act) to withhold that information. The Principal also has the right to make a complaint about the way in which the Agent has handled the Principal's personal information or that the Agent may have breached this clause or the Privacy Act. The Principal also has the right to request the correction of any personal information which relates to the Principal that is inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date.
- ix Any requests for access to the Principal's personal information or any complaints should be made in writing to the Agent at the contact details included in this agreement.
- x The Agent may charge a reasonable fee where access to personal information is provided (no fee may be charged for making an application to access personal information).
- xi The Agent will take reasonable precautions to protect the personal information it holds in relation to the Principal from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- xii The Agent may disclose the Principal's personal information outside of Australia. In doing so, the Agent will take reasonable steps that are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that any overseas recipient will deal with such personal information in a way that is substantially similar to, or consistent with, the way in which the relevant Australian Privacy Principles in the Privacy Act protects such personal information.
- xiii By signing this agreement, the Principal: (a) acknowledges that it has read, understands and accepts the terms of this clause; and (b) provides express permission to the Agent to collect, hold, use and disclose personal information in the manner described in this clause.

Disclosure of Rebates, Discounts, Commissions or Benefits

18. In respect of any expenses to be incurred by the Principal or the Agent on behalf of the Principal pursuant to this agreement or if the Agent refers a person to a non-independent service provider, the Agent discloses that the Agent may receive, or expects to receive, rebates, discounts, commissions or benefits from third parties as specified below or as notified by the Agent to the Principal in writing from time to time after the date of this agreement:
